Flue Not Feared This Winter

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 15.—There is no indication of an epidemic of influenza this winter, according to speakers at the convention of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States, in session here today.

Col. Victor C. Vaughn is an address declared the fouler the atmosphere and the more bacteria one breathed the more immune he would be to disease. This was proved, he said, by statistics compiled during the war, which showed the greatest death rate from diseases was among men from rural districts.

"The city-reared man," he asserted, "is accustomed to breathing filthy air, while the country-bred man is not, and consequently a foul atmosphere will affect the latter sooner than the former."

If Old Madison doesn't improve her road system during the next few years, it isn't going to be the fault of Mr. Boggs, who is deeply interested in doing all that he consistently can for his home county during his term as State Road Commissioner. The people at home have to co-operate, however, and this question will be discussed tonight at 8.

Butts Lauds Trutona As Com-batant of Tired, Dragg Rundown Feeling

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 16.—"Trutona has put my stomach in shape to digest the food I eat and I think it is truly a wonderful medicine—the kind a man needs when he has that common tired, draggy run down feeling," C. A. Butts, 1413 East Washington street, Louisville, said recently.

"My system generally was in a weakened and run down condition," he continued. "For the past thirty-five years I have worked in the foundry of the American Elevator and Machine Co., and I'd get so hot at my work that my system just naturally became run down."

"Realizing that I needed a good tonic that would build me up again and give me strength, I began using Trutona. I'm able to eat anything I want, since taking Trutona and I really enjoy the food, whereas before, I didn't enjoy any of my meals and consequently didn't get much good out of them. My bowels are acting regularly now, too. I can recommend Trutona more highly than any other medicine I've ever taken and I'm glad to do so."

Thousands of weakened and run-down men and women have found unlooked for relief through Trutona. Going straight to the seat of trouble, Trutona quickly rebuilds worn-out tissues, creates a normal action of the stomach, liver, and bowels and gives to the patient the long-sought-for strength of days gone by. As a body invigorant and system purifier Trutona is peerless.

Trutona is now being introduced in Richmond at H. L. Perry & Son's.

PETROGRAD REPORTED FREE FROM BOLSHEVIKI

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 17.—Reports of the capture of Petrograd and Kronstadt by Russian forces have been received by the State Department today from an American consular representative in Sweden. Confirmation of the report had not been received when the dispatch was sent but it is said it is generally credited in Sweden.

Not Quite Certain Yet

London, Oct. 17.—The march of General Yudeditch, at the head of the northwestern Russian army, on Petrograd is still progressing favorably, according to the latest advices. These appeared, however, some doubt that Kronstadt the outpost at the water approach to Petrograd, had been captured, as indicated in advices from Sweden.

(By Associated Press)

Other steps in the government's campaign to combat high prices were discussed and it was announced "progress" was made. Director Clarkson, of the Council of National Defense, and Attorney General Palmer will confer in a day or two regarding an appeal to the women of the country to increase saving and decrease extravagance as one means of reducing living costs.

THE LITTLE CHILDREN

Of Armenia Are Destitute—Send In Your Old Clothes

From the desert to which, nearly four years ago, they were driven by the Turks to perish, come the children of Armenia—those that are left of them. In groups of twos and threes they come, thin and hungry, clad only in dirty rags. With them sometimes are their mothers; more often—their fathers having been butchered, their mothers carried into slavery—to die of abuse—are orphans.

In the dark months of 1915 these children were forced at the point of Turkish bayonets down the long corpse-strewn path of deportation to the Arabian desert. Many of their number died beneath the blazing sun. Others were thrown to their death by their mothers, driven insane by suffering.

In equal misery are the children of the refugees who fled into the fastness of the Caucasus mountains when the deportations began. There are now about 330,000 refugees in this one region, so starved that some, according to official statements, have resorted to cannibalism.

Throughout all of Asia Minor the story of destitution is much the same. Armenians, Syrians, Jews, Persians and Greeks—men, women, and children—are dying by hundreds every day of starvation and disease.

Send your worn clothing. You can perform no nobler or more Christ-like task than to help clothe these little suffering children and helpless mothers.

I want to give every home in Madison the privilege of getting in on this. You are asked to exchange old clothes—worn, but not worn out, for the currency of heaven. Send in your worn clothing with your name marked plainly on the bundle.

WILL SELL IF WILSON NEEDS OPERATION

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Wilson, apparently cheered by the defeat of the Shantung amendment of the peace treaty late yesterday, continues to show improvement today, White House officials said.

Meantime, however, the physicians' bulletin today said the prostatic condition from which the President has been suffering several days was checking his general improvement of the last two weeks. Doctor Grayson announced he has called in Dr. Hugh Young, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, one of the foremost specialists in the country on prostatic troubles. Dr. Young will make a thorough examination to determine whether an operation is necessary, Grayson said.

A STORY OF THE WAR

That Grips And Thrills Is Seen In "Heart Of Humanity"

"The Heart of Humanity," to be seen next Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 22d and 23d at the Alhambra and Opera House, limns on the gray background of the last days of the conflict, a tender and appealing romance of loyal love and unswerving devotion. The whole production, from beginning to end, is fraught with the spirit of those great days when an anxious world hung breathlessly upon word from the seething battle front in Flanders. Into the midst of these stirring scenes of immeasurable portent, there makes its way the gentle romance of Nanette, an American girl reared in the northwood of Canada, and of her Canadian lover, John Patricia. Joined as war is begun, as war progresses they are separated—to meet again where the giant guns thunder their challenge on the fields of France. Thither John goes as an officer in the Royal Flying Corps and there Nanette hearkening to the cries of the homeless and motherless children, follows in the garb of the Red Cross.

There comes the last great Hun attack—the last terrifying drive toward Paris—when Chateau Thierry became another Verdun and the might of America, thrown into the balance, stayed the enemy, halted him and finally drove him back, until his retreat became a rout and he cried aloud for peace. Graphically, all the hopes, the prayers, the fears, the faith that stirred the heart of humanity in those days of vast import are reflected in the Aileen Holubar romance of the war.

SHANTUNG CLAUSE BEATEN IN SENATE

Washington, October 17.—The long debated Shantung amendment to the peace treaty, presented by Senator Henry C. Lodge and approved by the Foreign Relations Committee, finally was rejected in the Senate late yesterday a majority of a score against it.

In the vote of 35 to 55, 14 Republicans swung over to the pro-treaty forces, while three Democrats lined up with those supporting the proposal. Of the six Senators absent, two Republicans were put on record as in favor of the amendment and one Republican and three Democrats as opposing it.

The roll call, which came at the end of another six and a half hours of sharp debate, in reality swept away six amendments instead of one, each change in the treaty text having been numbered separately by the committee in its decision to strike out the word "Japan" and substitute the word "China" throughout the sections relating to the province of Shantung.

By unanimous consent, however, the six changes were debated and voted on as one.

Only three of the committee's 45 amendments now remain to be acted on by the Senate, 36 previously having been rejected. Of those remaining one relates to American representation on the Reparations Commission and two to equalization of voting power in the League of Nations Assembly.

Both Senators Beckham and Stanley, of Kentucky, voted to strike out the Shantung amendment.

Welcoming A New Business

They're a mighty bustling bunch of live young business men who opened up the United Clothing Store's new plant here on Main street. The big crowd awaiting the opening of the doors at nine this morning for the sale of the Sexton stock attested to the value of newspaper advertising. The stores of this organization wherever located always take front rank and their acquisition to the business of the city means a forward step along many lines. Every new business and live men that come to town help just that much more.
